CELEBRATE THE ARTS IN WESTON TOWN CENTER

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2014

The Arts Council of Greater Weston announces the second annual Celebrate the Arts Day in Weston Town Center. The event is scheduled for 12:00 pm - 5:00 pm in Weston Town Center. It will highlight hands-on participation in the visual arts, performance, dancing, and literary art. Check out the activities planned for the day:

- Young at Art Museum will offer an open air Art experience including several hands-on art activities in a variety of mediums – sculpt at a potter’s wheel, paint a still life on canvas, and express your personal creativity on the really popular graffiti wall.
- Music Tech Studios of Pembroke Pines will have a hands-on playing “zoo” for all ages to experience the fun of playing string, brass, woodwind and percussion instruments.
- Sagemont School’s visual and performing arts department will entertain with a varied array of performances ranging from winning short skits to solos and duets the concert band, and the debut of their new rock band, Sagemont Synergy; 12:00 pm – 1:30pm.
- Hip hop dancing for kids; 1:45 pm - 2:15pm and again 4:15 pm – 4:45 pm.
- The Cypress Bay Band, choral and drama departments will present their talented students. Included will be excerpts from the upcoming shows Les Miserables and Seussical plus group presentations going to state competitions; 2:30 pm - 4:00 pm.

Don Decker, Weston Director of Parks and Recreation, comments “The Arts Council of Greater Weston excels at bringing community groups together in order to promote the enthusiasm Weston shares for cultural arts. Celebrate the Arts Day at Town Center is an outstanding, family-friendly event that should not be missed.” For more information, please call 954-389-4321 or visit www.westonfl.org.
