

Privately Offered Service Contracts for Water Lines

The City of Weston is aware that there are companies that are mailing information to residents offering service contracts/protection programs for water lines.

The City of Weston maintains and is responsible for the water service line running from the street to your water meter.

The City does not endorse or recommend any private company, program or individual.